

Media Fact Sheet

Sprig Bio

Sprig Learning is a purpose-built education technology company that develops evidence-based, holistic, personalized, and culturally relevant early learning assessments and resources. From the web-based platform, to hard-copy books and puppets, to iOS applications, Sprig tools provide every student, educator, and parent with access to the solutions they need to build a foundation for lifelong learning.

Profiles

Jarrett Laughlin, CEO & Co-Founder

Jarrett has worked with educational organizations across the world developing holistic and innovative approaches to measuring success in education. His recent passion involves mobilizing research into action through socially innovative, community-based projects through his educational technology company.

Faud Khan, CTO & Co-Founder

Faud is an industry veteran with more than 20 years of IT security experience with network equipment manufacturers, managed security services provider, financial services, and government agencies.

Contact Information

website: spriglearning.com

email: letstalk@spriglearning.com

facebook: facebook.com/SprigLearning/twitter: @SprigLearning

instagram: instagram.com/spriglearning/

linkedin: linkedin.com/company/sprig-learning

Logo and Image Usage

A colour logo has been provided alongside a white logo. The white version is to be used when placing the logo on photos or colour backgrounds. If you require image assets at larger resolutions, please contact us directly by email.